Duque, and Julie Halligan, advisor to Cmmr. Bilas. Bill Stock, Manager, PG&E, also participated in the communications. Summary: LATE FILED. On January 25, 2001, Judy Peck of Sempra Energy (Sempra), met with Maryam Ebke, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. Also present were: Linda Serizawa, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, Julie Halligan and Ann Watson, advisors to Cmmr. Bilas, Lynn McGhee, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, and David Gamson, interim advisor to Cmmr. Brown. Jim Harrigan, Director, and Patrick Brown, Manager, Gas Acquisition, Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas), Gillian Wright, Regulatory Case Manager, and Judy Young, Attorney, Sempra, participated in the meeting by telephone. Brown stated that a handful of suppliers had limited future unsecured gas purchases. Peck suggested that these credit demands could be tied to the emergency application Pacific Gas and Electric Gas Company filed requesting to order SoCalGas to provide mutual assistance. Harrigan explained that, should the Commission order SoCalGas to supply gas to PG&E, that would require SoCalGas to increase its credit exposure, which could prompt further credit assurance demands beyond what SoCalGas can provide. Young emphasized that, because approval of PG&E's application would jeopardize gas purchases for SoCalGas core customers, SoCalGas would be unable to purchase gas for resale. Harrigan reiterated that PG&E has other options and urged the Commission to consider partial non-core diversion.

1/31/01 A99-03-025 Roseville Telephone Company, to review its New Regulatory Framework

Summary: On January 31, 2001, Brian Chang, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates' (ORA) program and project supervisor, met with Fassil Fenikile, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, in San Francisco. Also present were Ramesh Joshi, project coordinator, and Lee-Whei Tan, regulatory analyst, ORA. ORA representatives stated that it is premature to suspend sharing for Roseville Telephone Company (Roseville) since the market is not competitive and the Commission is initiating an investigation to review Roseville's revenue requirement. ORA indicated that the audit of Roseville found cost misallocations and cross-subsidization and that the suspension of the price cap has resulted in no financial benefits to ratepayers. ORA argued that Roseville should not be permitted to shift telephone directory revenues to its affiliate without Commission approval. ORA urged the Commission to approve ORA's general allocator instead of Roseville's three-factor allocator. ORA stated that Roseville's request to recover earlier year software depreciation costs should be denied. ORA suggested that Roseville is likely to use the proposed decision's permission to amend the calculation as an opportunity to reduce the amount of sharing. ORA stated that Roseville should ask the Commission's approval prior to changing its directory revenue retention ratio. ORA stated the need for Roseville to do a depreciation study before the elimination of annual depreciation review and that the PD will limit ORA's ability to conduct an audit.

Summary: On January 31, 2001, Ceil Kirby Morgan, President of Tustin Chamber of Commerce, sent a letter (attached to the notice) to Cmmr. Lynch. Copies of the letter were also sent to Cmmrs. Wood, Bilas, Duque, and Brown. The letter urged the Commission to reject Pacific Gas and Electric Company's (PG&E) request to compel Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas) to buy gas for PG&E. The letter states that alternative remedies have already been suggested to the Commission. The letter suggests that PG&E's requested action, if implemented, would push SoCalGas down the same path of bankruptcy that PG&E is on.
